

2021 NEAA Staff Conference - 11 & 12 August

How we are keeping Nano's legacy alive in 2021

Registrations open (www.neaa.edu.au): Monday 12 July 2021

Cost (inc. GST): $165 member / $220 non-member (discounts for multiple registrations)

Includes: Conference package and copy of The Story of Nano Nagle: A Life Lived on the Razor's Edge by Sr Anne Lyons pbvm

Wednesday 11 August 7:00 pm – 9:00 pm AEST	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Welcome and Liturgy ▪ Conversation hour with Sr Anne Lyons pbvm (facilitated by Delma Horan, NEAA President) ▪ Virtual tour (live) of Nano Nagle Place, Cork, Ireland
Thursday 12 August 10:00 am – 11:00 am AEST	KEYNOTE 1: What are the foundations of Nano's Charism? Professor Anne Touhy (BBI The Australian Institute of Theological Education)
11:15 am – 12:15 pm AEST	OPTION A: Engaging primary school students with the story of Nano Nagle. Overview: In this session you will hear about how St Mary's staff have engaged their primary students through lanterns, their mural wall, Fermoy Cottage (History Centre) and their Nano statue. Staff, St Mary's College, Hobart, TAS	OPTION B: Nagle Care - Service Learning Overview: This session will provide an overview of a service program for students that recognises their outreach work in the local Geraldton community. Insight will be provided as to how this program can count towards their WA Certificate of Education (WACE). Damian Ramos-Nunez, Director of Catholic Identity and Mission with Helen Dixon & Lawson O'Brien, Nagle Catholic College, Geraldton, WA
12:45 pm – 1:45 pm AEST	OPTION A: Lighting the Lantern Flame: Keeping Nano's legacy alive through Liturgy and Prayer Overview: This session will discuss the importance of using Presentation-specific language & symbols in prayer & liturgies and provide examples of how to embed the Presentation charism into elements of your school. Gemma Thomson - Dean of Mission & Catholic Identity, Iona Presentation College Perth, WA	OPTION B: Rita's rights – Actions and words Overview: This session will include a discussion regarding the student inspired and led club, Rita's Rights. Catherine Allen - Deputy Principal Students, St Rita's College, Brisbane, QLD
2:00 pm – 3:00 pm AEST	KEYNOTE 2: Prophetic like Nano: Responding to the Signs of our Times Dr Cristina Lledo Gomez Presentation Sisters Lecturer (BBI)

Contact: Louise Gunther, NEAA Executive Officer eo@neaa.edu.au