PILGRIMAGE

WALKING IN THE FOOTSTEPS
OF NANO NAGLE

21 APRIL — 3 MAY 2024 IRELAND

The NEAA 2024 Pilgrimage will provide both a spiritual and reflective journey as participants experience the chance to 'walk in the footsteps of Nano Nagle'. Pilgrims will walk the lane-ways of Cork where Nano and her lantern once journeyed. Our journey begins and ends in Dublin with visits to the Celtic site of Glendalough, An Cobh where the Presentation sisters sailed for Australia and convent visits. Highlights will include overnight stays at Mount St Anne's Retreat Centre and Ballygriffin, the birthplace of Nano Nagle. A highlight will be our visit to Nano Nagle Place in Cork, the site of South Presentation Convent and the Heritage Centre dedicated to the legacy of Nano Nagle and the Presentation order. Pilgrimage 2024 will also give you the opportunity to visit Presentation schools and meet with key educational leaders as you immerse yourself in the Presentation Charism.
