

The Power of Presentation

*Honorah Nagle was her true name
But to us "Nano" is the very same.
She was born in Ireland among the rich
A hobby of hers was to stitch.*

*Nano left for Paris to learn to read and write
And luckily came back to Ireland to do what she thought was right.
She walked the streets
Seeing the children of Cork in their bare feet.
Nano was not always sweet
Carrying that lantern heat.
For not only did she have to teach her people at night
She felt very passionately that this was their right!*

*She died at age 66 with all her nuns by her side.
We all know what she did was done with great pride.
She knew she had succeeded with the help of the sacred heart.
That's why she is so blessed.*
