

Save the dates for our 2021 Virtual Staff Conference

Wednesday 11 August 7:00pm – 9:00pm (AEST)

&

Thursday 12 August 10:00am – 3:00pm (AEST)

Theme: How we are keeping Nano's legacy alive in 2021

- Hear from Anne Lyons pbvm, author of the new book: The Story of Nano Nagle, A Life Lived on the Razor's Edge as well as participate in a virtual tour of Nano Nagle Place in Cork, Ireland.
- Breakout sessions will include a range of speakers and presentations suitable for both primary and secondary staff.
- All participants will receive a conference pack prior to the conference.

We invite members of our extended Presentation community to submit an Expression of Interest (EOI) form to present at our conference. Please consider ways you or someone in your school community are keeping Nano's legacy alive and how you embed Nano in your Religious Education programs, your school induction programs for both staff and students, the liturgies you celebrate as a community or any other ways your school celebrates and recognises the great works of Nano Nagle. Please encourage your colleagues to present at our staff conference.

Thursday's sessions are all one-hour in length. Please use the link here to complete your EOI. Submissions due Friday 28 May 2021.

The full conference program, registration & pricing details will be sent in the next few weeks.

(This Conference is open to all member and non-member schools and communities)
